*The above framework is broadly indicative and the fund manager may change the framework depending on the market conditions

Why Axis Value Fund?

Valuations:

- Look for companies trading at lower multiples in their industries
- Look for management turn around, sector dynamics shifts

Fundamentals based:

- Opportunity to advance ROE during cycles
- Potential for earnings growth in the long run
- Optimal levered
- Avoid highly levered companies within a sector or sectors
- Avoid value traps

• Medium to long term focus:

- Create wealth through multiples re rating and playing cycles

• Integrated risk management:

- Focus on portfolio Risk and its effective management

• Strong Management:

- Execution capability
- Good governance

Fund Manager's view

- We anticipate that market dynamics will be influenced by favourable cyclical factors and capex-driven segments such as infrastructure, domestic-oriented manufacturing, and utilities should benefit. Our portfolios are positioned accordingly, and we are overweight these segments. We are optimistic on EMS, capital goods, healthcare and real estate, additionally, have exposure to sectors such as power and defence that could benefit from government policies.
- > Valuations are rich but markets have been witnessing bouts of consolidation, and this will likely continue in the near term. Investors should be mindful of the volatility seen in the mid and small caps. This segment has more representation of B2B companies having exposure to investment and exports part of economy.
- Axis's approach to value investing will continue to look at companies with strong fundamentals at a reasonable valuation. Such companies will continue to grow as the economy enters a growth phase.
