About the Fund

Large and midcap strategy with sectoral diversification.

The fund aims to capture the global opportunities that are not available for domestic investors and will comprise primarily of global large caps. Key markets currently include America, Europe, ex- UK middle east, emerging markets & Japan.

Why look at global allocation?

- Global portfolio provides access to themes and companies that are not available in India
- Opportunities to invest in sunrise sectors unavailable in India
- Global allocations help better withstand event shocks

Fund Manager Views

- As expected, global economy focus has shifted to evolving geopolitical tensions, the impact of policy changes and tariff implementation. We believe at this juncture; impact of the global events is highly unpredictable. Portfolio tilt is towards companies with higher dependence on domestic markets/consumers and expanding addressable market opportunities, could emerge as potential winners in the near future.
- Government measures like GST are expected to support consumption, though the exact demand segments remain unclear. The fund is focusing on stock-specific factors over macro trends.
- The fund has a large cap bias, given the relative safety amidst the current market environment. The midcap allocation Favors companies with market leadership attributes and largely consumer facing business models. Given the elevated valuations, we have rotated positions across segments, currently we are OW on Retail, Hospitals and capital goods. We will remain in consolidation mode, based on earning growth profile.
- Given the concerns on geopolitical issues such as , tariff and Geo-political ,concerns, and pace of Global growth and with mixed economic data, we remain at low exposure to global stocks.
