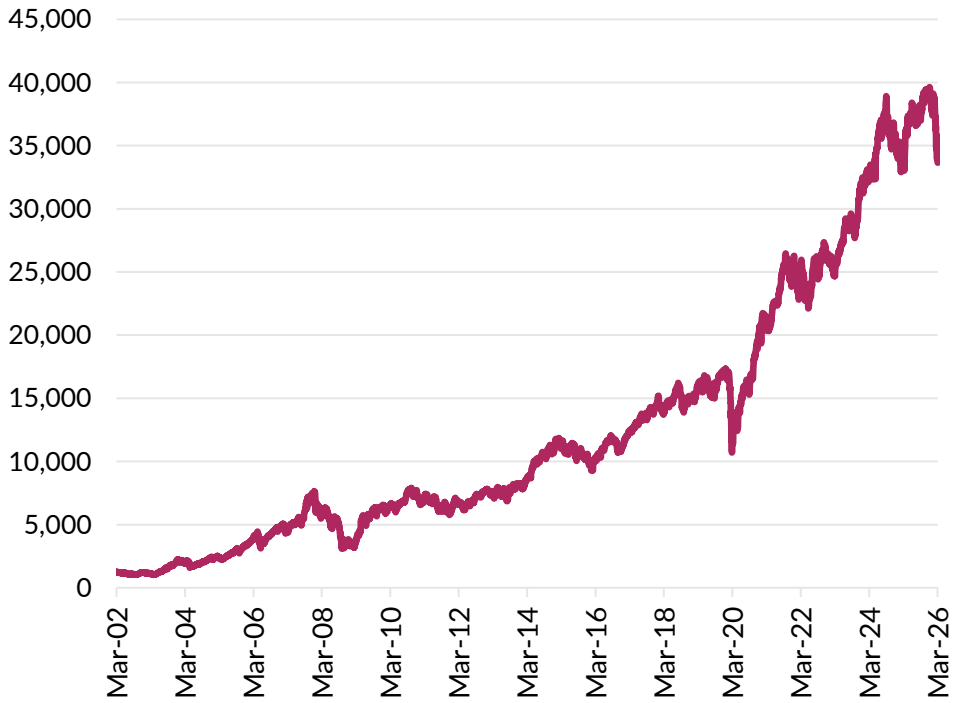
AXIS MUTUAL FUND | 15 YEARS AS YOUR INVESTMENT PARTNER

Investor Dilemma



Which direction market will move?

Will the market see a crash soon?

When to invest?

Is this a peak? Should I exit?

Should increase/ decrease my equity exposure?

AXIS MUTUAL FUND

Introducing

AXIS BALANCED ADVANTAGE FUND

(An open-ended dynamic asset allocation fund)

AXIS MUTUAL FUND

Axis Balanced Advantage Fund

Why Axis Balanced Advantage Fund?

- Predefined model considering valuation, macros and volatility
- Diversified portfolio
- Active calls on market cap, beta, credit and duration of the fund
- Internal Committee to take calls on non-quantifiable factors

Axis Balanced Advantage Fund: Asset Allocation

Equity
0-100%

Fixed Income
0-100%

Please refer the asset allocation and investment strategy from the SID for details.

The fund endeavours to generate capital appreciation via equity exposure and generate income by investing in Fixed Income securities

How fund is being managed?

Dynamic approach

Model-based valuation
Basis valuation and risk parameters, asset allocation is dynamically decided

Review by Internal committee
Monthly allocation review by internal committee constituted

Seizing Opportunities
Active calls and decision making based on market events

Please refer the asset allocation and investment strategy from the SID for details.

The funds dynamic approach aims to navigate equity market volatility and capture long term performance

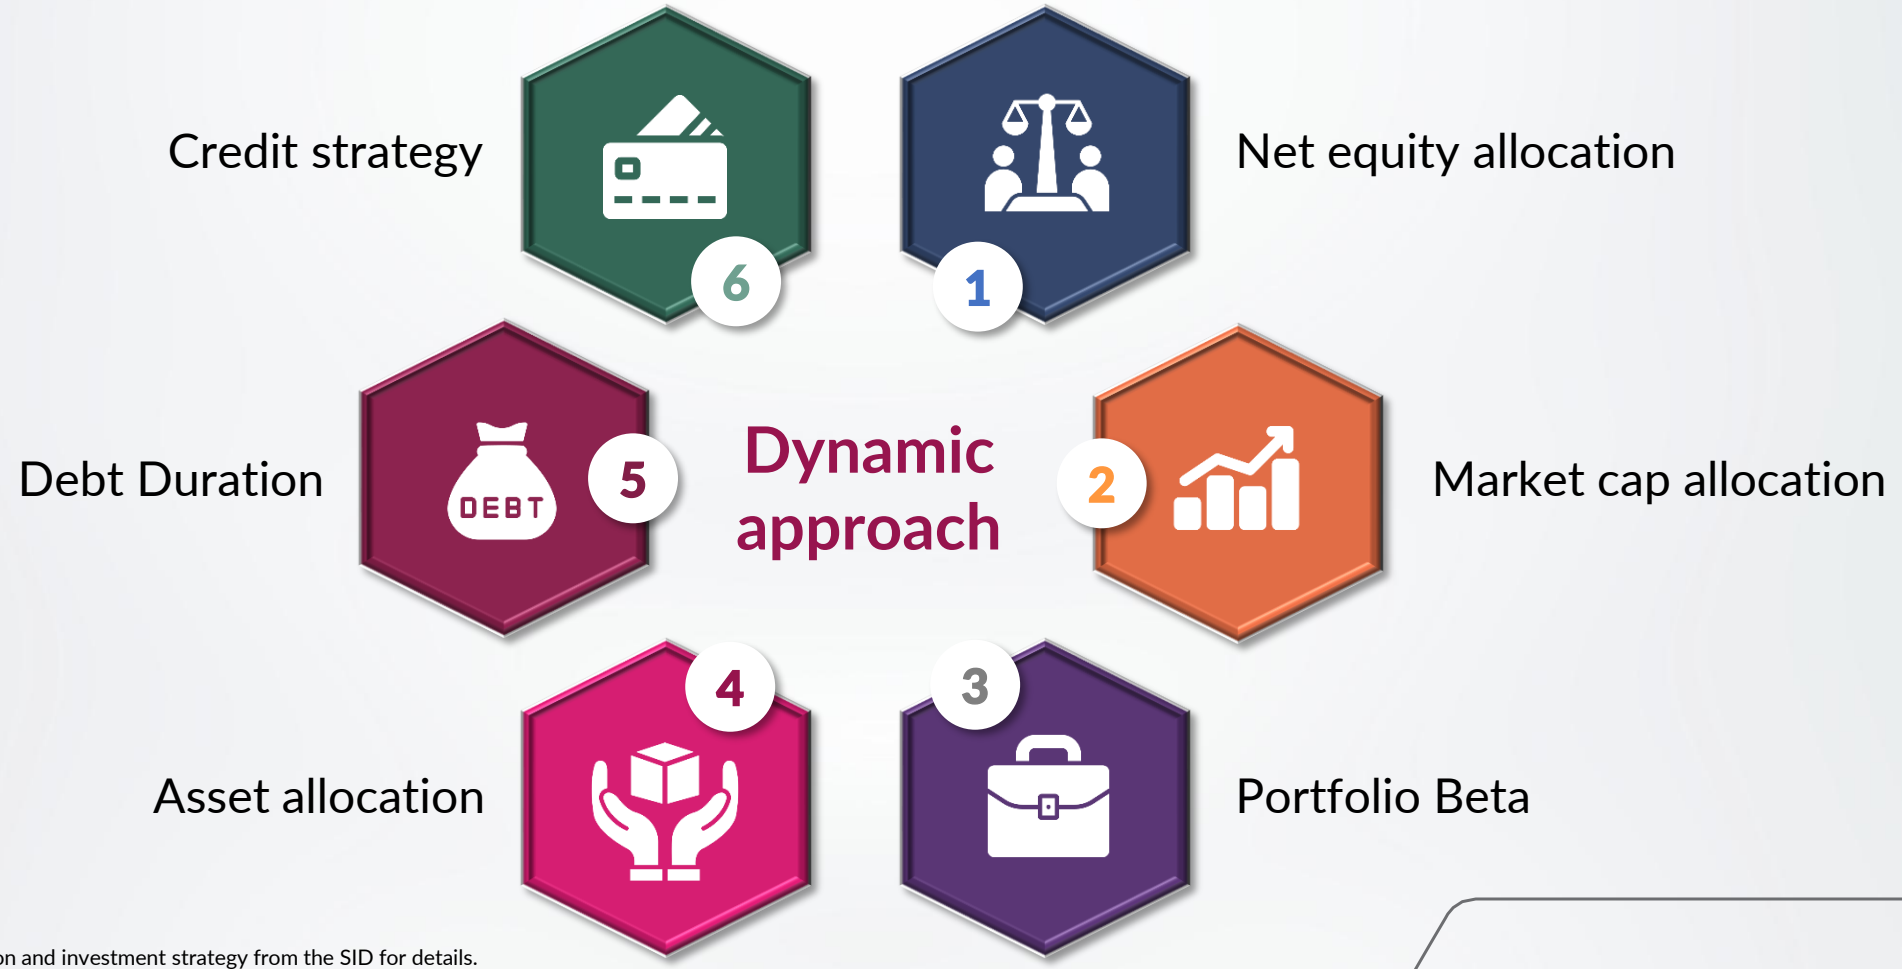
Key factors underpinning the model

Key factors	Coverage	Output
Valuations	Model - P/E ratio, PE India vs Global and MoM Earnings	Net Equity levels
Global and Domestic Macro	Model - Inflation, earning yield/G-sec yield, Interest rates etc	Equity – Debt asset allocation
Trend	Model - FII and DII flows and its trend and market volatility	Equity – Debt asset allocation and Net equity levels
Global and domestic events	Internal committee and Fund manager - Geopolitical scenarios and domestic events	Net Equity levels
Sector earnings	Fund Manager – sector earnings and events	Market cap and sector allocation

- Axis Balanced Advantage fund follows a 5-factor approach to determine equity exposure while rebalancing
- While few factors are quantifiable like valuation, earnings momentum; there are factors like geo-political scenarios which consider the events and market expectations that impact the trend in the stock market
- This ensures the 360^{o} coverage of factors to ensure the equity allocation is not just the basis of valuation, macros and trends but also includes broad parameters like,geo-political scenario, unexpected market events
- In the black swan events like Covid, Russia-Ukraine war, the committee can immediately take active calls on asset allocation

Please refer the asset allocation and investment strategy from the SID for details.

Strategic Agility: Dynamic Approach



Please refer the asset allocation and investment strategy from the SID for details.

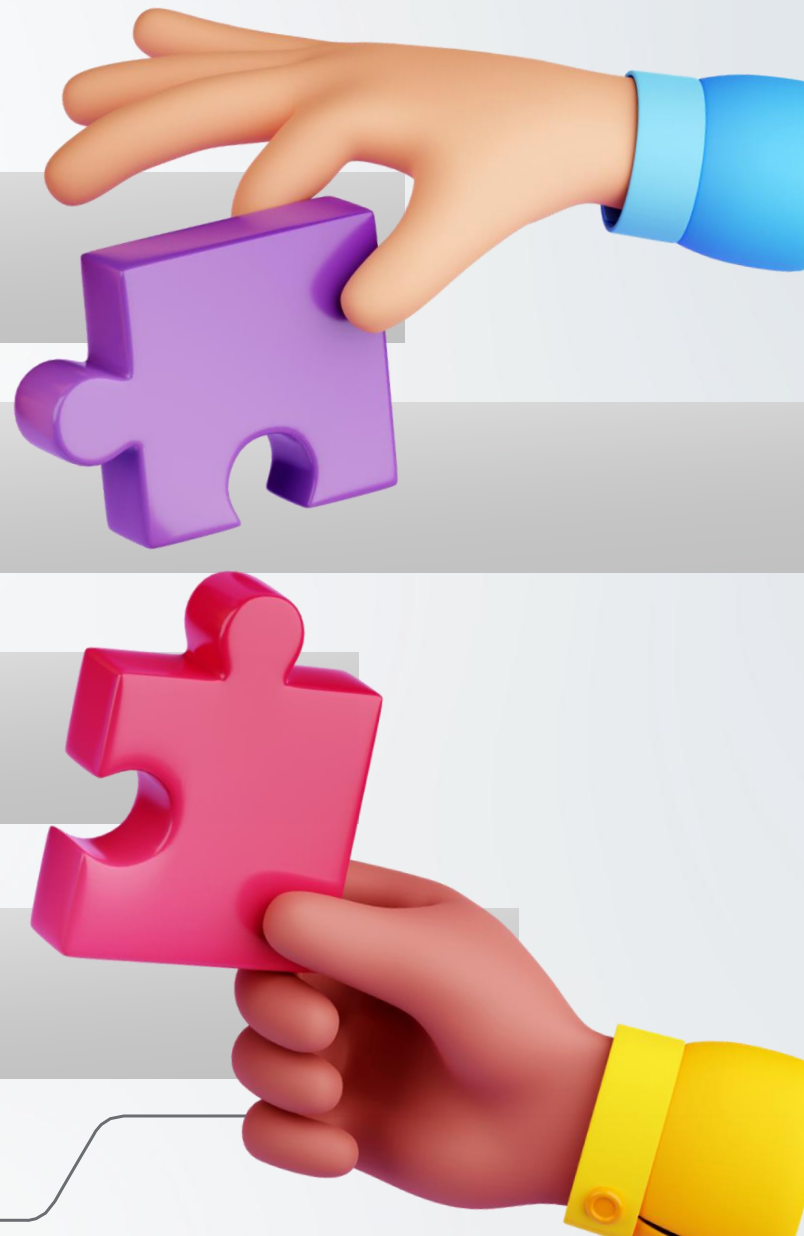
Product positioning

01 Investors looking for a solution which dynamically adjusts equity exposure

02 Investors looking to cushion downside while participating decently in market rallies

03 Suitable for relatively conservative investors who are not looking for pure equity returns

04 The Fund is ideal for investors who have an investment horizon of 5 years+



Please refer the asset allocation and investment strategy from the SID for details.
