Key Attributes

Goal-Based Investing:

Designed to support long-term financial goals such as higher education and other future aspirations through disciplined investing.

Balanced Asset Allocation:

The fund follows an allocation framework of 65–80% in equities and 20–35% in fixed income, combining long-term growth potential with portfolio stability.

Quality-Focused Equity Strategy:

Focuses on building a diversified portfolio of strong growth businesses through active management and bottom-up stock selection.

Flexible Fixed Income Approach:

Provides flexibility to invest across debt instruments and interest-rate opportunities with an aim to create stability within the overall portfolio.

Fund Manager's Views

West Asia tensions, higher US rates, and the evolving AI investment cycle remain key global market drivers. Elevated oil prices, tighter financial conditions, and investor focus on sustainable AI-led growth continue to shape market sentiment and direction.

The fund is earnings focused on themes such as manufacturing (EMS, China +1), healthcare, power equipment & utilities, travel and select Banks and discretionary consumption which are beneficiaries of formalization and premiumization, and also immune from global uncertainties.

On the debt side, since the fund has gradually shifted from long-duration strategies towards accrual-oriented opportunities, with a preference for high-quality corporate bonds and selective government security exposure through a barbell strategy.
