Why ESG? - Businesses are getting increasingly impacted by non-financial factors

All stakeholders (investors, customers, regulators) are getting more sensitive to these issues.

Climate change

Sustainable

mining

Privacy

security

Greater regulatory

Lifestyle changes

Weak ESG practices increase business risks

ESG factors and the impact on risk

Environmental:

Firm generating high levels of pollution may suffer from a future tax

Social:

Firm that poorly treats its employees or suppliers may be boycotted by the consumers

Governance:

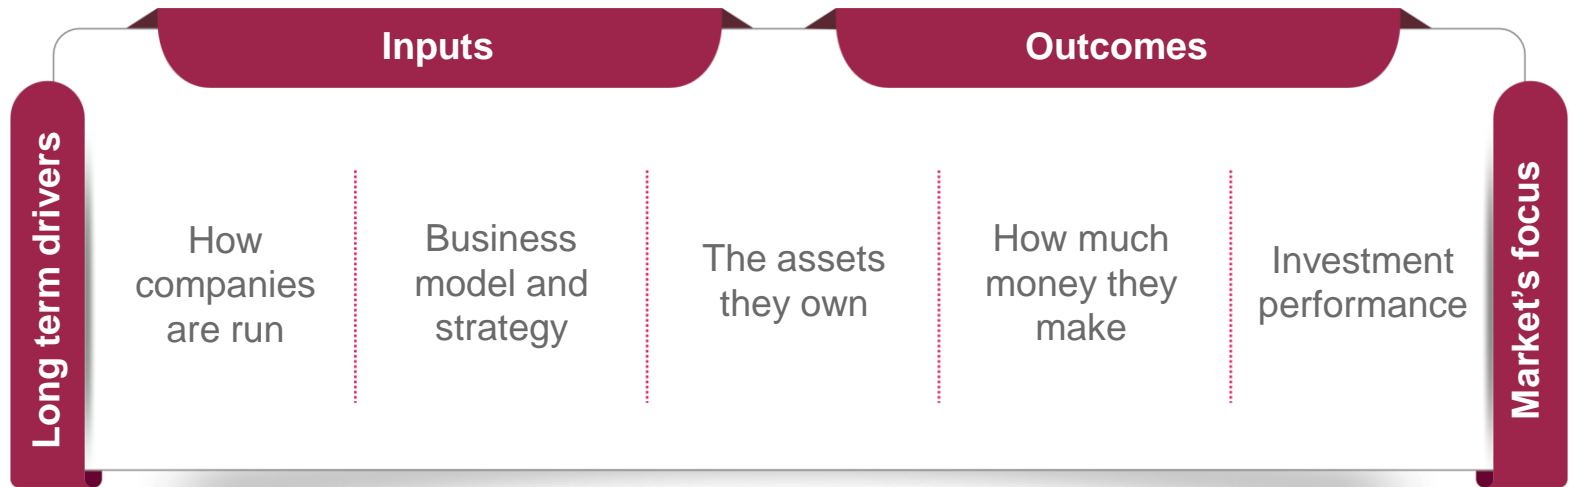

Firm with poor governance heavily fined by the regulator

The 3 pillars of ESG

Each pillar captures a number of issues

Natural Resource Use

Water stress, Biodiversity & Land use, Raw material sourcing, Financing Environmental Impact

Waste Management

Toxic Emissions & Waste, Packaging material and waste, Electronic waste

Opportunities in clean tech, green building, renewable energy

Social

Human capital

Labor management, Health & Safety, Supply chain, Controversial sourcing

ESG Assessment

A proprietary, forward-looking and dynamic view of ESG based on qualitative assessment of each company

Process created with inputs from Schroders – incorporating global best practices

All companies evaluated using a standardized framework that uses data as well as analyst assessments

ESG Process

Detailed ESG assessment on stock inclusion in the universe

Annual stock-level ESG review to capture changes to operating environment

Review of specific ESG issue faced by any company in the universe

Active engagement with management – improved disclosures, proxy voting

What are we looking for?

We look for truly sustainable businesses

- Strong stakeholder relationships
- Managed for durable long term growth
- Strong fundamentals

We believe investing in these companies

- Offers a rich source of alpha
- Can deliver stable returns with lower tail risk
- Has a positive social impact

Finding these companies is challenging

- Requires much more than a tick box approach
- ESG analysis is necessary, but not sufficient
- Our existing process of looking for long term quality companies should give us an edge
